

Impact Japan

Talent Engagement Open Event

Talent Engagement

Open Event - December 1st 2009 (14:00-17:00)

American Embassy Compound, Daly Hall (アメリカ大使館職員宿舎デーリーホール)
2-1-1 Roppongi, Minato-ku, Tokyo

How do you engage the top people in your organization?

The business case for employee engagement is clear – leaders and managers who inspire and engage their employees are more likely to realize the full potential of their workforce, unlocking hidden talent and maximizing business performance. Research shows that “actively disengaged employees” cost Japan approximately 26 trillion Japanese yen (JPY) per year.

This FREE Open Event (in English) has been designed to give managers and leaders an opportunity to explore the impact of their leadership on their organization, the behaviors and strategies that will encourage and sustain an engaged and committed workforce.

Our FREE Talent Engagement Open Event will explore:

- Key drivers of talent engagement
- Effective people management
- The role of the leader
- Organizational culture
- Engagement barriers
- How to develop effective engagement strategies

The event will give you the opportunity to:

Engage

Come along and learn about Impact's innovative approach to Talent Engagement

Experience

Take part in interactive projects to sample different learning methodologies and find out how Impact Japan works.

Network

Take part in dialogue with like-minded individuals. Find out 'who is doing what' and 'how is it making a difference'.

To book your FREE place

Email: tokyobitesize@impact-japan.com or online at www.impactinternational.com/japantalentengagement www.impactinternational.com/japantalentengagement

IMPACT